ALL AGES

Surfing is a sport that can be enjoyed by all ages.

---

Whether it's baby waves in the shallows, waist high rollers in the bay, or peelers out the back, you can be 7 or 70 and still become totally hooked.

EXPLORER

NEW PARTICIPANT

WHITE

This SURFER can

...have fun in a safe ocean environment under fully qualified supervision.

Where physically able this surfer may have stood up on their board with or without assistance.

Their success lies in their willingness to try new things.

By having fun and digging deep they can achieve the incredible.

This Explorer is a budding 'Icon'.

LEARNER

PROGRESSING BEGINNER

YELLOW

This SURFER can

...surf in a fully supervised environment, in suitable safe conditions, on learner equipment (soft boards).

They have a basic understanding of the dangers and key safety aspects of surfing.

This colour iAM Band could be awarded in the first lesson if the pupil has the required skills to successfully stand up on their own wave.

APPRENTICE

ADVANCED BEGINNER

ORANGE

This SURFER can

...regularly catch and stand up on their own waves (generally broken / white water waves) without assistance.

They can turn their board in both directions. This surfer applies good surf safety awareness.

This surfer understands the basics of surfing dynamics. They display good control of their board and can dismount safely.

INTERMEDIATE

PRACTICED PARTICIPANT

GREEN

This SURFER can

...surf unsupervised in suitable conditions and is consistently 'out the back' beyond breaking waves.

Traversing waves, they are kicking out or turning to the beach at the end of the ride.

This surfer understands and applies basic surf and beach etiquette.

They are starting to consider more advanced equipment to suit their needs.

INDEPENDENT

PROFICIENT PARTICIPANT

This SURFER can

...always ride on green waves. They can comfortably take off, bottom turn and top turn.

This surfer is moving on to their own equipment, away from learner boards on to hard boards.

They have a full understanding of surfing etiquette and apply this at all times.

They are hunting for good waves.

SKILLED

ABLE PERFORMER

BROWN

This SURFER can

...consistently apply the basics of good surfing:
- speed
- flow
- control

They are surfing in decent waves often referred to as '6ft' or just overhead.

They have all the basic manoeuvres worked out and can perform them on demand.

This surfer is ready to step up!

EXPERT

CREATIVELY COMPETENT

BLACK

This SURFER can

...legitimately be called a 'good' surfer.

They are comfortable in most conditions, adding power and creativity to the basics of good surfing.

Aerials, whilst not compulsory, could be in their repertoire.

They behave in a responsible 'ocean and surf minded' manner showing good surf etiquette at all times.

THE INDEPENDENT ABILITY MEASURE

PRO

NATIONAL COMPETITOR

RED

This SURFER can

...compete and win at a national level.

By ramping up their speed and power this surfer stands out in any line up.

A highly visible national profile would usually be expected.

This iAM Band can also be awarded to renowned 'watermen/women' who charge big waves or surfers who are celebrated on a national level for their inspiring surfing skills.

ELITE

INTERNATIONAL PROFESSIONAL

GREY

This SURFER can

...compete and win at an international level.

They have usually won several national titles.

This surfer has a full repertoire of tricks. They can lay down some amazing manoeuvres and/or impress us with their huge wave prowess.

They are a great ambassador of the sport on a global stage. An inspiration to their national surf scene.

ICON

ULTIMATE EXPLORER

PURPLE

This SURFER can

...be proud of their achievements.

Presented more for services to the sport than pure technical ability these 'Icons' have influenced the very fabric of surfing.

They are blazing 'Explorers' where their inner spark leads the rest have followed.

Through perseverance and fun they achieve the incredible.

FAMILIES

Getting in the surf as a family is a great way to enjoy action packed quality time in Cornwall. During the holiday season, families make up a large part of our bookings. Wherever possible, returners get the same instructors and as always there is the choice of booking your own private lesson or joining in as part of group.
